

Mixture of Civilizations.
Key West, Fla., is a quaint mixture of American and Latin-American civilization, with about equal parts of each, Harry A. Franck writes in the Century Magazine. The Spanish tongue is heard there fully as often as English, and, as in the towns along the Mexican border, the official tongue is bilingual, and Americans from the North are frankly considered foreigners by the Cubanized rank and file.

Education in China.

literacy among the people of South China is greater than among those of the north. Claim is advanced in Canton that nearly all the children of Cantonese parentage, except those of the large boat population, can read; whereas in the north it is unusual to find a family the children of which are all placed in school.

Figs Always in Demand.

The fig yield of the valley of Aiden, Turkey, has risen from approximately 8,000 tons raised on 10,000 acres of land about 30 years ago to about 22,000 tons raised on 25,000 acres. However, this advance in supply has not kept pace with the demand, and prices of figs have steadily risen. The big producing areas are, under normal conditions, exclusively tapped by the Ottoman (Aiden) Railway company's system. The orchards, located mainly in the Meander valley, are owned chiefly by Turks.

Homing Umbrella.

According to a trade journal the latest fashion in umbrellas is a pigeon's head carved on the handle. This, we understand, is the first step toward a really reliable homing umbrella.—
